TradersCoach.com Software Activation After 10-Day Grace Period:

After you install the TradersCoach.com software for the first time it will run for 10-Days without activation. Some may wish to use this 10-Day period as a trial, others may use it as a grace period awaiting their activation code. Regardless, on the 11th Day the software will ask you for an unlock code.

To obtain an unlock activation code, you must either purchase or lease the software. If you already purchased you should have received your activation code via email. If you cannot find your activation code or lost it, you need to CLICK HERE and fill out the online activation request form to have your unlock activation code emailed to you.

Once you purchase or lease the software, you will automatically receive your activation code via email after you complete your order, but the only way to enter your software activation code is after the 10-day grace period is over and the software asks you for your activation code. So when you receive your activation code via email you will need to save it until the software asks you to enter it at the end of the 10-day grace period. There is no way to enter your activation code until the 10-day grace period is over.

End-of-Trial TradersCoach.com Software Purchase Options:

Once your 10-Day Trial has finished you will need to either purchase or lease the software you want from TradersCoach.com. You may purchase or lease the entire bundle or suite of studies or purchase or lease them individually.

During your 10-Day Trial you should have received emails from TradersCoach.com explain how to purchase the software you want and a link to our online store. CLICK HERE to access the TradersCoach.com Online Store.

Please note that after the 10-Day Trial the TradersCoach.com software will stop working unless you insert a permanent unlock code. This pop-up window box will also ask you to insert your unlock code provided by TradersCoach.com if you have one. Once inserted you will then be activated and can continue to use the software.

If you do not purchase the software, then you will need to remove the TradersCoach.com software studies from your charts or you will continue to get an alert that your 10-Day Trail has expired. You can also remove all the TradersCoach.com software from TradeStation using TradeStation's "EasyLanguage Editor" and deleting all the TradersCoach.com studies.
